I Served the King of England (2008) - Rotten Tomatoes

The novel "I Served the King of England" is Hrabal's most extroverted, least forthrightly autobiographical. The picaresque amatory exploits of its hero, the busboy-to-millionaire Diti, are far raunchier and more explicit in words than in cinematography; in fact, little Diti is by no means the charming underdog in the book that he is in the film.
